The Coming Attack on The United States

George Washington saw the coming attack on the United States in a vision of the future of the United States shown to him by an angel at Valley Forge. Washington was shown by the angel that the United States would pass through Three Great Perils. The First was the Revolutionary War. The Second Peril was the Civil War between the States, and in a yet to come Third Great Peril he saw that the United States would be attacked by all the nations of the earth combined. He saw how Americans would defend their homes fighting the invading armies in the streets all across the USA.

In this paper, I will attempt to identify the causes and the time in the future when this final conflict will occur. To think this could actually happen to our country, the Land of the Free and Home of the Brave, is frightening. But we can be encouraged. The founding father of our country, George Washington, also saw the outcome of the war. Although our land will be ravished and we nearly give up the fight, Washington also saw that the Lord of Heaven will send us divine assistance. The invading armies will be rolled back into the sea and America will once again be rebuilt and be even more beautiful than it is today -- THE LAND OF THE FREE AND THE HOME OF THE BRAVE.

Everyone has heard of Armageddon -- a prophecy in the Bible in which the land of Palestine, now the modern country of Israel, is invaded by a 200 million-man army from the north. However, almost no one has realized before Armageddon happens to Israel, our dear home of America will be invaded by the hordes of what the scriptures call the "heathen" nations.

In describing this coming attack on the United States, I will use the standard works of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, books of scripture accepted by 12,000,000 Latter-day Saints worldwide, often called the "Mormons." These are the Bible, The Book of Mormon, The Doctrine & Covenants, and the Pearl of Great Price. It must be understood, however, that the conclusions drawn by the author in this paper are his only, and not to be considered the official doctrine of the Church to which he belongs. Other sources are also drawn from to reach these conclusions and are listed in the Bibliography.

In the 38th and 39th Chapters of Ezekiel, the Lord mentions that in the battle of Armageddon he "...will send fire on Magog AND among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the Lord." (Ezekiel 39:6) The Bible dictionary says Magog is a country near the Black Sea, and Gog (Gorbachev?) is the leader of that country. Magog is the heathen nation (probably Russia and China) that invades Israel together with Persia (now Iraq and Iran), Ethiopia, Libya, Gomer (Germany) and all his bands (nations of Europe and Asia).

Americans, Britons, and Australians are those that are dwelling carelessly on the isles of the sea. The ancient American prophet Nephi stated that America was an isle of the sea. Nephi said of his people that, "...we have been led to a better land, for the Lord has made the sea our path, and we are upon an isle of the sea. And great are the promises of the Lord unto them who are upon the isles of the sea; wherefore as it says isles, there must needs be more than this, and they are inhabited also by our brethren." (2 Nephi 10:21) So when fire is sent upon those who dwell carelessly in the isles, included are America, Great Britain, Ireland, Australia, and other isles who are the descendants of Israel.

Why would the scripture say we in the isles "dwell carelessly"? Just ask yourself this question: When the heathen nations of Russia and China are building their military might for the coming invasion of Armageddon, what were we doing here in America? We were disarming (up until Trump won the Presidency)! Isn't that acting carelessly?

With the breakup of the Soviet Union in 1992, many believed that communism has failed in its drive for world conquest. They are deceived. I received a notice from retired Brig. General William L. Lemnitzer, U.S. Army in which he reported that the Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency had informed Congress that Russia is constructing military bunkers indicating a preparation for nuclear war. The Russian Foreign Minister has announced that the "honeymoon (with the US) has come to an end." Presently, hard-line Russian communists are returning to control in Russia and have announced a desire to put the Soviet Union back together again. What is their goal? World Conquest! But who are they doing it for?

In a 1984 book called, New Lies for Old, by Anatoliy Golitsyn, a top KGB agent who defected to the west in the December 1961, contains the ongoing Plan the communists had for world conquest.

Before defecting to the United States, Anatoliy committed to memory the long range goals of the Soviet Empire. After spending a couple of decades trying in vain to convince our government leaders of the threat and real Plan for world conquest by the communist world, in 1984 he decided to take his warning to the people.

In his 1984 book, Anatoliy describes how the Soviets and Chinese would play war games to make the West believe they were enemies. Then he described how world communism was financed by western International Bankers and governments by claiming each time that they were becoming "democratic," and how through their propaganda machine, they made it appear that those who financed them were really their enemies. They fomented the lie that Communism and Capitalism are mortal enemies when, in fact, they are bedfellows. It is through decades of financing by the Capitalists of the West that Communism survived at all. Their economic system is so inefficient that it couldn't possibly survive on its own. The reason is Communism is a parasitic system -- it can only live off the life blood of others.

Anatoliy discloses that the Plan for World Conquest of the communist empire was that when they were at the pinnacle of their power, they would suddenly feign weakness to get the West to disarm before their final intense strike and conquest of the West. By feigning a breakup of the communist empire and the staging of democratic elections, the West was led to believe they now had no enemies. Therefore, the former communist, now deceptively turned democratic, countries were admitted into the NATO partnership. And of course, the greatest reason for feigning a breakup of the Soviet Union was to get the West to disarm. After all, if you no longer have an enemy, why spend so much on defense?

The proposed breakup of the Soviet Union was to be highly publicized and things like the unifying of the German Republic with communist Germany and the bringing down of the Berlin Wall -- were to all be a part of that strategy -- including the overthrow of satellite communist governments by massive popular movements of the people. Remember, this was a long-time strategy Anatoliy committed to memory before defecting to the United States in 1961. His book was published in 1984. That was about 8 years before the breakup of the Soviet Union and the unifying of the Germanies happened.

Then we look at what has happened. The US Congress has greatly diminished our military and eliminated many of our military bases in the US and around the world. In fact, Gorbachev oversaw much of this dismantling and destruction of our forces. He then became President of Gorbachev Foundation, headquartered in San Francisco. An International Conspiracy is hard at work transforming the United Nations from an international forum of nations into a One World Government. Could have Gorbachev been groomed to be the first World Dictator? I watched on TV in dismay as perfectly good bombers in Tucson, Arizona were chopped up. President Clinton worked hard to try to turn our military forces over to the United Nations -- which United Nations was setup by communists and run by socialists and Marxists from the beginning. In a meeting in which General Westmoreland, our commander in the Vietnam War spoke, he disclosed that all his orders in that war came from a communist commander in the United Nations. In fact, the top military commander in the United Nations has always been a Communist from Russia.

In view of the fact that traitors in our government have been working night and day in delivering the world into United Nations control, and lastly, we in America will be attacked by world forces in an attempt to enslave us, it is important that freedom loving people do all in our power to prevent this headlong rush into slavery.

But first, let us ask ourselves, "How did we get into this drastic state in which we in America are finding ourselves?" Actually, this mess came about from the misuse of the money powers that We, The People gave to Congress in the Constitution. In 1913 our Congress passed the Federal Reserve Act near Christmas when all those that opposed it had gone home for Christmas. The Federal Reserve Act was signed into law by President Woodrow Wilson and created a private international bank called the Federal Reserve Bank. The Federal Reserve is not a government agency. It is a private corporation owned by private stockholders, most of which are foreigners. The money created by the Federal Reserve Bank is created as debt. If no money is borrowed from the central bank, no money goes into circulation except for a few coins such as quarters, nickels and dimes.

Our economy is created when government and industry issue requests to borrow money from the Federal Reserve Bank. The Federal Reserve then pays the US Treasury to print the money for which it pays with a fraction of the money printed. The money is then lent into circulation with interest to run our economy. The Federal Reserve Bank makes about $1 trillion dollars profit off the American economy every year.

A spiral of ever increasing debt is created with the Federal Reserve debt-based monetary system that can never be paid off. That is because when debt owed to the banks of the Federal Reserve System is paid, that money goes out of circulation. Since in the Federal Reserve debt monetary system all money is created as debt, if all the debt were entirely paid off, then there would be no money to have a functioning economy. Additionally, since no money is ever created to cover the interest to be paid on the that debt, every year a number of individuals and businesses automatically must be foreclosed to cover the interest. In this manner, the Federal Reserve and the corporations, trusts and foundations owned by its stockholders are gradually taking over America!

The Federal Reserve's agents in our government have successfully convinced Congress to yearly borrow more money from the Federal Reserve -- money which our own government prints up for them and pays them interest for! This has kept money in circulation to run our economy. But at what expense? Our national debt has now past $9 trillion dollars. And as the debt grows the value of the dollar diminishes. The dollar today is now worth only about one cent of its 1913 value. Slowly but surely, the international stockholders of the Federal Reserve are taking over our country with business foreclosures and corporate takeovers. When our total national debt gets to be more than our country's total net worth, then our ability to pay the interest will surpass our ability to pay! What then? Our country will go bankrupt! Now is that living carelessly? This is an exact fulfillment of the Biblical prophecy!

A debtor that defaults on his payments is repossessed by the bank. The international bankers realize that a country that defaults on its payments won't just turn over all its property to them, so for centuries they have used the interest they earn by lending money to governments to build up foreign powers that can be used to wage war to repossess the defaulting country. This has been the modus operandi of Amchel Rothchild and the central banks his family has set up all over the world since the 1700's. After NATO took out Muammar Gaddafi, assisted by our Secretary of State Hilary Clinton who allowed the terrorists to kill our ambassador to Libya J. Christopher Stevens and gave Libya to the terrorists, a partial accounting ordered by Congress of the money the Federal Reserve used when we bailed out the banks after 9-11 in 2011 revealed that the Federal Reserve had financed the "Central Bank" the Libyan terrorists set up to overthrow Gaddafi.

So what countries have the international bankers who own the Federal Reserve Bank of America been building up to be used as our reposessor? Shortly after the passage of the Federal Reserve Act in 1913, the international bankers paid gold on the streets of Moscow to the Bolshevik revolutionaries to overthrow the Czar of Russia. This was done because the Czar refused to let the internationalists to set up one of their central banks in his country. They deposed him also for helping President Lincoln during the Civil War. You see, the internationalists had France take over Mexico and were planning on helping the South by invading the Union from the south through Mexico and having England invade the Union from the north through Canada. Pres. Lincoln seeing the coming squeeze, requested the Czar of Russia, who at that time had one of the largest navy armadas in the world, to help us. The Czar responded by telling France and England to leave US alone and reinforced this edict by placing his navy off each of our coasts. The International Bankers were upset with Lincoln for refusing to fund the war with their money. Lincoln saved interest money by printing up Lincoln greenbacks to finance the war.

After the turn of the century, the United States was becoming so powerful that the International Bankers realized they would need more than one country to repossess us. Therefore, we have seen the spread of communism, and US foreign aid nearly always goes to dictator countries around the world who oppose us in the United Nations. The bankers started World War One to convince America to support their first try at World Government -- called the League of Nations. When we refused to enter, they created a depression to punish us. This was done by jacking up the interest rate so high that business couldn't profit by borrowing money to fund expansion. Then the government under conservative Herbert Hoover refused to indebt the government to create money. Finally, the socialists, funded by the bankers, voted in President Roosevelt and the government then started borrowing money for his Big Deal programs to get money into circulation and to rev up the economy.

Finally, the bankers created World War II to also get us to borrow money from them. Because the war was so wide-spread and bloody the internationalists after the war were able to convince our national leaders to support the founding of the communist inspired United Nations. The United Nations was founded by communists and communist sympathizers, all of whom work hand in glove with the international bankers. It's purpose is to steal the sovereignty of our country and destroy our national Constitution. Then we have been succored into no-win wars run by communists in the United Nations such as the North Korean war and the Vietnam War.

Patriots have petitioned and written letters by the truckload to Congress to get the US out of the UN and to buy back the Federal Reserve Bank and return to constitutional money -- all of which has fallen on deaf ears. Our representatives are mostly bought off by representatives of the Federal Reserve Bank so it is difficult to get our representatives to listen to us, we the people.

The international bankers have prepositioned UN military hardware all over the United States and have trained foreign troops on American soil in the name of the United Nations. Unconstitutional gun control laws have been ram rodded through Congress and the military has trained to confiscate guns from the populace. Clandestine groups have trained and armed groups of gangs all over the US to help the military confiscate our guns. The Federal Building in Oklahoma was blown up and blamed on the citizen militias as an excuse to introduce repressive legislation in Congress. Airline planes flown into the Twin Towers in New York City have been blamed on terrorists and used as an excuse to pass the freedom reversing Patriot Act. Are we living carelessly in the Isles? American's watch their TVs daily with spoon-fed news and commentary designed to lull them to sleep so they won't realize the drastic state our country is in. An aroused citizenry and competent leadership could save our country.

Joseph Smith, the great American prophet of the 19th Century proclaimed the solutions to the problems we face today in his campaign platform when he ran for President in 1844. He suggested that Congress sell public lands and reduce their own salaries to pay the slave owners for their slaves to set them free, which would have prevented the Civil War.

His solution that would have prevented our country from going bankrupt was truly inspired. He proposed that Congress set up a National Government Bank with State branches. All capital stock in the central bank would be held by the nation, and stock in the branches by the states and territories. Officers and directors with wages of $2 per day for their services were to be elected by the people yearly. No bank was to issue more bills than the amount of capital in their vaults and interest. The net gain of the central bank was to be applied to the national revenue, and that of the branches to the revenue of the states and territories. The bills (money) would have the same value nationwide. (JOSEPH SMITH, An American Prophet by John Henry Evans p. 256) With this solution, we would have no need to pay any taxes. And this solution would have prevented the coming invasion of the United States by the United Nations trying to repossess the US when we default on our debt to the International Bankers!

If the United States had accepted the solution of this prophet of God, we wouldn't be in the financial mess we find our country in today. Instead, they sent a mob to kill the prophet Joseph Smith, and in 1913 our Congress gave its constitutional power over the money supply to a private corporation of International Bankers, called The Federal Reserve bank, whose stockholders are the some of the richest people in the world, mostly foreigners. They make over $1 trillion dollars off the American economy yearly. This would be more than enough to run our government. A provision in the Federal Reserve Act allows Congress to buy back the Federal Reserve Bank. The interest could then be used to run the government allowing all taxes to be eliminated including the IRS. We would then own the National Debt which could then just be cancelled. This would prevent the coming bankruptcy of our nation and the invasion of America of all the armies of the world trying to repossess US!

And don't think for a moment that we could not be attacked! The People's Republic of China is reported to have raised its published military budget 75% since 1988. And this year the Chinese communists have announced that they have increased their annual military budget by nearly one-quarter, to about $7.5 billion. At the time the Soviet Union feigned their breakup claiming to now be a conglomerate of democratic nations, their military was at an all time high. And what did we do here in America? We commenced disarming and closing our military bases!

Maybe you had better turn to your Bible for an indication of what we are up against in the near future here in the Land of the Free! Even our first President, George Washington saw the coming attack on the United States in a vision of the future of the United States shown to him by an angel at Valley Forge. Washington was shown by the angel that the United States would pass through Three Great Perils. The First was the Revolutionary War. The Second Peril was the Civil War between the States, and in a yet to come Third Great Peril he saw that the United States would be attacked by all the nations of the earth combined. He saw how Americans would defend their homes fighting the invading armies in the streets all across the USA.

Had the nation heeded the Prophet Joseph Smith, we would have saved the 1/2 million men who died in the Civil War. Had the United States listened to the Prophet Joseph Smith, millions who will die in the COMING INVASION would have been saved death. Instead of accepting his inspired wisdom, Joseph Smith was martyred in Carthage Jail, Illinois, on June 27, 1844 -- a date indicated in the passageways of the Pyramid of Giza, one of three great dates so indicated. The other two dates are the Exodus of Israel from Egypt, and the other was the birth of Jesus Christ.

John Taylor of the Council of the Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, that was organized by Joseph Smith in 1830, wrote that "Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer of the Lord, has done more, save Jesus only, for the salvation of men in this world, than any other man that ever lived in it." He could have saved even more, had we listened, heeded and accepted the solutions he provided to us as a nation.

As a nation, we did NOT heed the counsel of the Prophet of our modern age, instead he was killed by an angry mob even when the Governor of Illinois had promised his protection. We have already paid with 1/2 million dead in the Civil War and hundreds of thousands in subsequent wars. How many millions more will we lose when we are attacked in the coming war of repossession?

Isaiah of the Bible spoke of the coming attack upon the United States of America! He spoke of it as a punishment of God Almighty upon the wanton women of our land.

"As for my people, children are their oppressors (parents aren't allowed to discipline their children in America), and women (feminists like Mrs. Clinton) rule over them, O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

"The Lord standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people."

"The Lord will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof; for ye have eaten up the vineyard (with confiscatory taxation and interest); the spoil of the poor is in your houses." (houses of the Super-Rich International Bankers)

"What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord God of hosts."

"Moreover the Lord saith, Because the daughters of Zion (America) are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet;"

"Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will discover their secret parts."

"In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,"

"The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,"

"The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings, the rings and nose jewels, the changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins, the glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails."

"And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be a stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty."

"Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the WAR."

"And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground."
(Isaiah 3:12-26)

Isaiah Chapter 4 Tells us how many will fall in the battle defending our country. It says that seven women shall ask one man to be their husband. Why? Because six out of every seven men will have fallen in the war.

The prophet Joel in the Bible saw the invasion of America in the latter days before the coming of the Lord. He wrote, "Blow ye the trumpet in Zion (America), and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand;"

"A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations."

"A fire devoureth before them (the invading armies); and behind them a flame burneth; the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them."

"The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run."

"Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap (helicopters and jets), like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array."

"Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather darkness."

"They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks;"

"Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded." (Sounds like robotic soldiers).

"They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief."

"The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble; the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining;"

"And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?"

(To the people of America): "Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;"

"And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil."

"Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the Lord your God?"

"Bow the trumpet in Zion (America), sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly;"

"Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet."

"Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar (of the temples), and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen (the invading hords) should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?"

"Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people."

"Yea, the Lord will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:"

"But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate (the Arctic), with his face toward the east sea (Atlantic), and his hinder part toward the utmost sea (Pacific Ocean), and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things."

"Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things." ...

"Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God...and praise the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed."

"And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed."

"And it shall come to pass afterward (after the war), that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:"

"And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit."

"And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke."

"The sun shall be turned unto darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come."

"And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in mount Zion (America) and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call." (Joel 2)

John Taylor, one of the early presidents of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is attributed with a vision in which he saw the aftermath of that war. In his vision, he was taken from Salt Lake City back east. What he saw was described graphically. The railroads were rusting from nonuse. No cars were running. Women with backpacks on their backs were headed to the Rocky Mountains. In the cities, he could see no young men (killed in the war?). Only old men, women and children. The waters were all polluted and mothers would slit the throats of their children to drink their blood to quench their thirst. In New York, robbers would come up out of the basements and subways to kill and rob their victims and descend down below the streets again. Then he saw a fire break out and consume the city.

Near Independence, Missouri where the great city of Kansas sprawls over the countryside, no living thing could be found. The whole area was swept clean. Then he saw the twelve apostles of the Lamb of God in a prayer circle dedicating the land of Zion for the building of the future capital of America -- the New Jerusalem as prophesied in the Book of Mormon in the Book of Ether.

Ether, an ancient American prophet wrote about 300 B.C., "that after the waters (of Noah's flood) had receded from off the face of this land it became a choice land above all other lands, a chosen land of the Lord; wherefore the Lord would have that all men should serve him who dwell upon the face thereof..." Ether's ancestors came from the Tower of Babel to America led by the hand of the Lord "unto the land of promise, which was choice above all other lands, which the Lord God had preserved for a righteous people. And he had sworn in his wrath unto the brother of Jared, that whoso should possess this land of promise, from that time henceforth and forever, should serve him, the true and only God, or they should be swept off when the fullness of his wrath should come upon them."

Our present civilization is threatened by a Conspiracy of the International Super-Rich. But conspiracies are not new to America. Two previous great civilizations whose bones and ruins can be found spread all over the Americas (but more particularly in Central America) were brought to their destruction by conspiracies.

The ancient American prophets warned us of these conspiracies that would seek to also destroy us. The ancient American prophet Moroni wrote, "And now I, Moroni, do not write the manner of their oaths and combinations, for it hath been made known unto me that they are had among all people, and they are had among the Lamanites, And they have caused the destruction of this people of whom I am now speaking (the Jaredites), and also the destruction of the people of Nephi. And whatsoever nation shall uphold such secret combinations, to get power and gain, until they shall spread over all the nation, behold, they shall be destroyed; for the Lord will not suffer that the blood of his saints, which shall be shed by them, shall always cry unto him from the ground for vengeance upon them and yet he avenge them not. Wherefore, O ye Gentiles (modern America), it is wisdom in God that these things should be shown unto you, that thereby ye may repent of your sins, and suffer not that these murderous combinations shall get above you, which are built up to get power and gain -- and the work, yea, even the work of destruction come upon you, yea, even the sword of the justice of the Eternal God shall fall upon you, to your overthrow and destruction if ye shall suffer these things to be."

"Wherefore, the Lord commandeth you, when ye shall see these things come among you that ye shall awake to a sense of your awful situation, because of this secret combination which shall be among you; or wo be unto it, because of the blood of them who have been slain; for they cry from the dust for vengeance upon it, and also upon those who built it up."

"For it cometh to pass that whoso buildeth it up seeketh to overthrow the freedom of all lands, nations, and countries; and it bringeth to pass the destruction of all people, for it is built up by the devil, who is the father of all lies; even that same liar who beguiled our first parents, yea, even that same liar who hath caused man to commit murder from the beginning; who hath hardened the hearts of men that they have murdered the prophets, and stoned them, and cast them out from the beginning."

"Wherefore, I Moroni, am commanded to write these things that evil may be done away, and that the time may come that Satan may have no power upon the hearts of the children of men, but that they may be persuaded to do good continually, that they may come unto the fountain of all righteousness and be saved." (Ether 8:20-26)

The secret combinations or Conspiracy that threatens our civilization today was formed May 1, 1776 by Adam Weishaupt, a Jesuit Priest, who called it the Order of the Illuminati. His goal was to recruit into his organization the richest men of the world and use their money to take over the world through world revolution. Among the richest men he inculcated into his Order was Mayer Amshel Rothschild of Frankfurt, Germany. The Rothschild banking dynasty has ever since been a kingpin of the Conspiracy.

Adam Weishaupt hoped to achieve the following with his world revolution:

1. Abolition of all ordered Governments
2. Abolition of Private Property
3. Abolition of all Inheritance
4. Abolition of Patriotism
5. Abolition of all Religion
6. Abolition of the Family
7. Creation of a World Government. (Fourth Reich of the Rich, Des Griffin, p.24)

Adam Weishaupt infiltrated the Freemasons in 1777 for the purpose of replacing Freemasons in high government positions with his own people. When the Freemasons got wind of Weishaupt's conspiracy to take over their Society, a conference was held in 1782 to examine the nature of the Illuminati. At this time one of the top men in the Illuminati, Von Knigge, had a falling out with Weishaupt over who was going to be the Rex or King of this Secret revolutionary movement.

The hardest blow to Weishaupt's Luciferian Conspiracy occurred in 1785 when one of Weishaupt's co-conspirator, named Lanze, was struck by lightning while carrying important documents of the Order of the Illuminati, containing plans for destroying the French government through riots and revolutions as well as all the governments of the world. These papers fell into the hands of the Bavarian government which ordered their police to raid the headquarters of the Illuminati in Germany. Adam fled for his life and all the governments of Europe were warned of his terrorism. The warnings fell on deaf ears, and so the Illuminati was successful in destroying the government of France through their ten year Reign of Terror.

Adam Weishaupt died in 1830, but his plans were carried on by his successors. Even as the 13 colonies were united in America under the United States Constitution, the Illuminist Conspiracy was creeping into America. Fifteen Lodges of the Order of the Illuminati were formed in the thirteen colonies. The Columbia Lodge of the Order of the Illuminati was established in New York City in 1783. Many strong warnings were issued by American leaders including David Pappen, President of Harvard University and President Timothy Dwight of Yale. In a letter to G.W. Snyder, George Washington wrote, "It is not my intention to doubt that the doctrine of the Illuminati and the principles of Jacobinism had not spread to the United States. On the contrary, no one is more satisfied of this fact than I am...The idea I meant to convey was that I did believe the Lodges of Freemasonry in this country had, as societies, endeavored to propagate the diabolical tenets." (Fourth Reich of the Rich, Griffin)

Des Griffin, in his book, Fourth Reich of the Rich, wrote, "In 1829, American Illuminists sponsored a series of lectures in New York by English Illuminist Frances 'Fanny' Wright. She advocated the entire Weishauptian program of her auxiliary of the Order of the Illuminati including Communism made more palatable by the label of 'Equal Opportunity and Equal Rights, Atheism, Emancipation of Women and Free Love.' Those present were informed that the Illuminati intended to unite the Nihilist and Atheist groups with all other subversive organizations into an international organization to be known as COMMUNISM. This new destructive force was to be used by the Illuminati to foment future Wars and Revolutions. Clinton Roosevelt (a direct ancestor of FDR), Charles Dana and Horace Greeley were appointed a committee to raise funds for this new undertaking." (Fourth Reich of the Rich, Griffin, Emissary Publications, 1979, p. 62)

In 1834, Giuseppe Mazzini, the Italian revolutionary who was appointed by the Illuminati to be its director after Adam Weishaupt died, appointed Albert Pike to head the operations of the Illuminati in the United States. (Fourth Reich of the Rich, p. 65) Mazzini and Pike divided between them the work to carry on this One World Government conspiracy. Pike took control of the Theosophical side of their operations, while Mazzini took over the Political side of the Order.

Weishaupt and his "Inner Circle" were not Atheists; they believed in a god. However, this god was not Jesus Christ, but Lucifer. Their goal was to use the atheists to destroy the Christians. In a letter dated August 15, 1871, (which until recently was on display in the British Museum Library in London), Pike gave Mazzini details of his Luciferian plan for world conquest. In this letter, Pike outlined the plans for Three World Wars. He wrote that during the Third World War:

"We shall unleash the Nihilist and Atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the minority of revolutionaries (terrorists), will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass (direction), anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the pure light through the universal manifestation of the Pure Doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view, a manifestation which will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and Atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time." (The New Age Movement, and The Illuminati 666, Roy Allan Anderson, p. 229)

Many claim the Luciferian Illuminati-Communist-Socialist Conspiracy does not exist today. But Winston Churchill wrote February 8, 1920 in the Illustrated Sunday Herald:

"From the days of Spartacus (Adam) Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, to those of Trotsky, Bela-Kuhn, Rose Luxembourg, and Emma Goldman, this world-wide conspiracy has been steadily growing. This conspiracy has played a definitely recognizable role in the tragedy of the French revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the 19th century; and now at last, this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads, and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire." (The Missing Dimension in World Affairs, Goy, p. 92)

The Federal Reserve Bank in the United States is not a U.S. run institution. In the mid 1800's a German Illuminist named Jacob Henry Schiff was sent to the New York to get control of the United States monetary system. He became head of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb, and Company and bought out Kuhn & Loeb with Rothschild money. Jacob Schiff became one of the most important successors of Albert Pike in America. Jacob Schiff managed to connect the bankers of America, J.P. Morgan, Paul Warburg and the Rockefellers into the Conspiracy by intermarrying their children and working to get the Federal Reserve Act passed through Congress. This they did on December 22, 1913 with the help of their first president, Woodrow Wilson, whose campaign was heavily financed by Jacob Schiff, Bernard Baruch, Henry Morgenthau, Thomas Fortune Ryan, and the New York Times publisher, Adolph Ochs.

As it was during the French Revolution, so it is today. The Illuminists have penetrated into the high levels of American Politics. They have their top men posing as Congressmen, Senators, even Presidents, FBI and CIA agents, as military officers, and even as clergymen. The power of the Illuminati is money. And they use their money to gain control in all aspects of society, the Religious, Political, Economical, Educational, Medical, Military, and Social.

In the late 1940's, the House Committee on Un-American Activities exposed over 300 top Hollywood stage and screen stars as card carrying Communists. In 1945, Myron C. Fagan, a screen writer, producer and director in Hollywood and on Broadway attended a meeting in Washington, D.C. where he was shown a set of microfilms and recordings of the secret meeting at Yalta attended by Franklin Roosevelt, Alger Hiss, Harry Hopkins and Stalin, Molotov and Vishinsky, where they hatched the plot to deliver the Balkans, Eastern Europe and Berlin to Stalin. As a result of that meeting, Myron Fagan declared open and avowed war on this Illuminati-Communist-Socialist Conspiracy, and formed an anti-Communist society called the Cinema Educational Guild. While in Alaska in 1981, Fred M. Sandelin let me listen to a tape recording by Myron Fagan in which he detailed the control the Illuminati has over all aspects of Society, how they own movie companies, the networks NBC, ABC, CBS, the oil companies, the automakers, etc, etc. In fact, he said they have controlling interest in nearly everything including the churches. But noted that only one church they do not control -- and that was the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

At about the same time as the Illuminist Conspiracy was getting a foothold in America, the Kingdom of God predicted by Daniel, the prophet, as a small stone cut out "without hands" would eventually smite the image of the Beast of the Conspiracy upon his feet and brake it in pieces and the Kingdom of God would then grow until it becomes a "great mountain" and fill the whole earth. Daniel prophesied that in the days of 10 Kings ruling in Europe, "shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever." (Daniel 2:34,35, 44) During the only time in history when 10 kings were ruling in Europe, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was organized on Jesus Christ's birthday, April 6 in the year 1830 by the prophet of the Restoration, Joseph Smith. Jr.. Joseph Smith proclaimed, "The keys of the kingdom of God are committed unto man on the earth, and from thence shall the gospel roll forth unto the ends of the earth, as the stone which is cut out of the mountain without hands shall roll forth, until it has filled the whole earth."

To the peoples of the earth, the Lord Jesus Christ spoke through his prophet, Joseph Smith saying, "Prepare ye, prepare ye for that which is to come, for the Lord is nigh; and the anger of the Lord is kindled, and his sword is bathed in heaven, and it shall fall upon the inhabitants of the earth. And the arm of the Lord shall be revealed; and the day cometh that they who will not hear the voice of the Lord, neither the voice of his servants, neither give heed to the words of the prophets and apostles, shall be cut off from among the people; For they have strayed from mine ordinances, and have broken mine everlasting covenant; They seek not the Lord to establish his righteousness, but every man walketh in his own way, and after the image of his own god, whose image is in the likeness of the world, and whose substance is that of an idol, which waxeth old and shall perish in Babylon, even Babylon the great which shall fall.

"Wherefore, I the Lord, knowing the calamity which should come upon the inhabitants of the earth, called upon my servant Joseph Smith, Jun., and spake unto him from heaven, and gave him commandments; And also gave commandments to others, that they should proclaim these things unto the world; and all this that it might be fulfilled, which was written by the prophets -- The weak things of the world shall come forth and break down the mighty and strong ones, that man should not counsel his fellow man, neither trust in the arm of the flesh -- But that every man might speak in the name of God the Lord, even the Savior of the world; That faith also might increase in the earth; That mine everlasting covenant might be established; That the fullness of my gospel might be proclaimed by the weak and the simple (18 & 19 year old missionaries) unto the ends of the world, and before kings and rulers."

"Behold, I am God and have spoken it, these commandments are of me, and were given unto my servants in their weakness, after the manner of their language, that they might come to understanding. And inasmuch as they erred it might be made known; And inasmuch as they sought wisdom they might be instructed; And inasmuch as they sinned they might be chastened, that they might repent; And inasmuch as they were humble they might be made strong, and blessed from on high, and receive knowledge from time to time."

"And after having received the record of the Nephites, yea, even my servant Joseph Smith, Jr., might have power to translate through the mercy of God, by the power of God, the Book of Mormon. And also those to whom these commandments were given, might have power to lay the foundation of this church, and to bring it forth out of obscurity and out of darkness, the only true and living church upon the face of the whole earth, with which I, the Lord, am well pleased, speaking unto the church collectively and not individually." (D&C 1:12-30)

Jesus Christ, after his resurrection, appeared to the Ancient Americans and commanded them to write in their history (the Book of Mormon) regarding the signs of his coming in the latter days. At that time, he gave the ancient Americans this sign, "that ye may know the time when these things shall be about to take place -- that I shall gather in, from their long dispersion, my people, O house of Israel, and shall establish again among them my Zion;"

"And behold, this is the thing which I will give unto you for a sign -- for verily I say unto you that when these things which I declare unto you, and which I shall declare unto you hereafter of myself, and by the power of the Holy Ghost which shall be given unto you of the Father, shall be made known unto the Gentiles (modern America) that they may know concerning this people who are a remnant of the house of Jacob (the American Indians), and concerning this my people who shall be scattered by them;"

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, when these things (The Book of Mormon) shall be made known unto them of the Father, and shall come forth of the Father, from them unto you;"

"For it is wisdom in the Father that they should be established in this land, and be set up as a free people (The United States of America) by the power of the Father, that these things might come forth from them unto a remnant of your seed, that the covenant of the Father may be fulfilled which he hath covenanted with this people, O house of Israel;"

"Therefore, when these works and the works which shall be wrought among you hereafter shall come forth from the Gentiles, unto your seed which shall dwindle in unbelief because of iniquity;"

"For thus it behooveth the Father that it should come forth from the Gentiles, that he may show forth his power unto the Gentiles, for this cause that the Gentiles, if they will not harden their hearts, that they may repent and come unto me and be baptized in my name and know of the true points of my doctrine, that they may be numbered among my people, O house of Israel;"

"And when these things come to pass that thy seed shall begin to know these things (The Book of Mormon) -- it shall be a sign unto them, that they may know that the work of the Father hath already commenced unto the fulfilling of the covenant which he hath made unto the people who are of the house of Israel."

"And when that day shall come, it shall come to pass that kings shall shut their mouths; for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider."

"For in that day, for my sake shall the Father work a work, which shall be a great and a marvelous work among them; and there shall be among them those who will not believe it, although a man shall declare it unto them."

"But behold, the life of my servant (Joseph Smith) shall be in my hand; therefore they shall not hurt him, although he shall be marred because of them. Yet I will heal him (resurrected from the dead), for I will show unto them that my wisdom is greater than the cunning of the devil."

"Therefore it shall come to pass that whosoever will not believe in my words (The Book of Mormon), who am Jesus Christ, which the Father shall cause him to bring forth unto the Gentiles (America), and shall give unto him power that he shall bring them forth unto the Gentiles, (it shall be done even as Moses said) they shall be cut off from among my people who are of the covenant."

"And my people who are a remnant of Jacob (the American Indian of today) shall be among the Gentiles, yea, in the midst of them as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep, who, if he go through both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver." (This refers to a coming anarchy in America in which the American Indian & Hispanics will terrorize the people -- probably when the government cuts off their welfare because of the coming bankruptcy.)

"Their hand shall be lifted up upon their adversaries, and all their enemies shall be cut off."

"Yea, wo be unto the Gentiles (modern America) except they repent; for it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Father, that I will cut off thy horses (fuel) out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots;" (our cars & trucks)

"And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strongholds;" (military bases)

"And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy land, and thou shalt have no more soothsayers;" (astrologers)

"Thy graven images I will also cut off, and thy standing images (sky scrapers) out of the midst of thee, and thou shalt no more worship the works of thy hands;"

"And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee (tornadoes); so will I destroy thy cities."

"And it shall come to pass that all lyings, and deceivings, and envyings, and strifes, and priestcrafts (paid pastors and priests), and whoredoms, shall be done away."

"For it shall come to pass, said the Father, that at that day whosoever will not repent and come unto my Beloved Son, them will I cut off from among my people, O house of Israel;"

"And I will execute vengeance and fury upon them, even as upon the heathen (the invading armies), such as they have not heard."

"But if they will repent and hearken unto my words, and harden not their hearts, I will establish my church (The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints) among them, and they shall come in unto the covenant and be numbered among this the remnant of Jacob, unto whom I have given this land for their inheritance;"

(After the war) "And they shall assist my people, the remnant of Jacob, and also as many of the house of Israel as shall come, that they may build a city, which shall be called the New Jerusalem."

"And then shall they assist my people that they may be gathered in, who are scattered upon all the face of the land, in unto the New Jerusalem."

"And then shall the power of heaven come down among them; and I also will be in the midst." (3 Nephi 21) Read also in the Bible, Micah 5:8-15

"Behold, Ether saw the days of Christ, and he spake concerning a New Jerusalem upon this land. And he spake also concerning the house of Israel, and the Jerusalem from whence Lehi (father of the American Indians) should come -- after it should be destroyed it should be built up again, a holy city unto the Lord; wherefore, it could not be a new Jerusalem, for it had been in a time of old; but it should be built up again, and become a holy city of the Lord; and it should be built unto the house of Israel -- And that a New Jerusalem should be built up upon this land, unto the remnant of the seed of Joseph, for which things there has been a type."

"For as Joseph brought his father down into the land of Egypt, even so he died there; wherefore, the Lord brought a remnant of the seed of Joseph out of the land of Jerusalem, that he might be merciful unto the seed of Joseph that they should perish not, even as he was merciful unto the father of Joseph that he should perish not."

"Wherefore, the remnant of the house of Joseph (the American Indians & Hispanics) shall be built upon this land; and it shall be a land of their inheritance; and they shall build up a holy city unto the Lord, like unto the Jerusalem of old; and they shall no more be confounded, until the end come when the earth shall pass away." (Ether 13:2-8)

If you don't have a copy of The Book of Mormon, you can order a free copy at <http://www.mormon.org/freeBookofMormon/1,10120,1405-1,00.html>. The Book of Mormon is a warning by ancient America to modern America not to repeat their mistakes and be destroyed as they were by the hands of conspiracies set up to get gain (profit). It also contains the fulness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as taught by Himself to the Ancient Americans.

There are many scriptures that indicate that in this final conflict of the coming Third World War, that atomic weapons will be used.

"And it shall come to pass that he that feareth me shall be looking forth for the great day of the Lord to come, even for the signs of the coming of the Son of Man. And they shall see signs and wonders, for they shall be shown forth in the heavens above, and in the earth beneath. AND THEY SHALL BEHOLD BLOOD, AND FIRE, AND VAPORS OF SMOKE." The radiation from the atomic warfare will cause "...their flesh shall fall from off their bones, and their eyes from their sockets..." (D&C 29:19)

When will this final conflict occur?

Another indication when the coming war will occur is a vision given to an LDS (Mormon) man in Utah in the early 1900's. The land was in a depression and he had been out prospecting in the hills to see if he could find some gold to help support his family. He came home tired and went to sleep on his couch. In the night an angel appeared to him and told him where to open up a mine. He took him out of the body to the top of a nearby mountain and was told to start digging there. Then he took him down through the strata and at the same time showed him the future history of the United States as they would reach each level in their digging. He was advised that there was a caved-in tunnel at the base of the mountain leading to a prehistoric cavern where the gold was to be found, but that he wasn't to use that method to reach the cavern of gold. If he did the angel would cause an earthquake that would prevent them from ever reaching the cavern of gold.

In vision, this man was shown the First, Second, and Third World Wars. After the First World War, he saw the great depression followed by the Second World War. He then described the conditions that would exist in the United States when the miners finally reached the cavern of gold where he saw workers cutting blocks of solid gold out of the cavern walls. The angel admonished him that the gold was to be used to help build up Zion and the building of the New Jerusalem and not just to enrich himself and his family.

When the time came to ship the first load of gold to the Denver mint it was a time of a severe drought in Utah. A Republican was President of the United States. He was in his second term in office. The country was in severe depression with very high interest rates. Many people had lost their homes and were camped outside cities in tents and shacks. Then he read the newspaper headlines that the President of the United States had been assassinated and that the United States was being attacked by invading world forces. (Article in Search Magazine, 1984 by Bruce Walton)

Now, to evaluate. The Western United States is now in many years of a severe drought. We have a Republican President who very well may be elected to his second term. People have taken their money out of banks because of such low interest rates and have put their money in the stock market and into the housing bubble. In February 2008, the housing bubble burst and prices fell. Now the Federal Reserve is starting to raise their interest rates again, and mortgage interest rates have started climbing, and there seems to be vehicle bubble with the rising prices of vehicles. Our national debt has now passed $20.5 trillion. National bankruptcy is very close unless something drastic is done very soon to correct it.

When will the war of repossession happen? My personal opinion is this: President Donald Trump may very well be the Republican president mentioned in the Dream Mine Prophecy. He most probably will be re-elected in 2020 and start his second 4-year term in January 2021. I also have calculated that at the end of January 2021 ends the one-half hour of silence in Revelation 8 in the last book of the Bible, and the seven trumpets of God will begin to sound, followed by the seven woes leading up to the earth being burned and the righteous being caught up while the earth is purified of all wickedness in preparation for the coming Millennial Reign of Jesus Christ the Lord. These calculations I give at the bottom of this webpage on my website: <http://www.ourhollowearth.com/passporttoeternity.htm>

What should we do to? I offer the following suggestions to Congress, the State Legislatures and individual citizens:

CONGRESS & THE STATE LEGISLATURES:

1. Congress should return to real constitutional money based on assets such gold and silver, instead of the present debt-based monetary system of the Federal Reserve Bank, and repeal the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. In the place of the Federal Reserve private bank, Congress should set up a national United States bank with officers elected by the people. The United States bank would be owned by all the people of the united states of America in what I call an Asset-Based Monetary System. This Asset-Based Monetary system would be instituted as an Amendment to the Constitution and ratified by the states. It would give us an asset-based money called United States currency. It would have bank offices in each state with the officers elected by the people. To begin, the United States bank will pay off all debts in the united states of America except credit card debt, which will just be cancelled. This will not cause inflation, because the new money will replace the old money dollar for dollar. No interest will be paid on the debt, because in the Federal Reserve debt monetary system, no money was ever created to cover the interest. All fractional reserved banking and short-selling on the stock market will be eliminated. Additionally, all taxes will be eliminated except a flat 10% voluntary income tax that will be reimbursed to the people in the form of the only new money created by the bank. The reimbursement will be paid in the next year back to the tax-payer. The tax-payer can choose if he wants to be paid in gold, silver, or copper coin denominated at a greater face value than the intrinsic value of the metal, or paper currency or electronic currency as a receipt for taxes paid. This will increase the income of tax payers 2.36 times every ten years. Only one other tax will be levied – a tariff tax to protect businesses in our country from being put out of business by imports from other countries. With a voluntary incentive-based income tax, there will be no need of the Internal Revenue Service, so it will be eliminated. Congress will offer this Asset Based Monetary System to other countries to eliminate their debt and bring prosperity to their country. After doing so, they can then be invited to join the Union and become a State of the Union in the united states of America, whereupon the tariff tax between their state and the united states of America will be eliminated. Property ownership will also thus be returned to the people and not be threatened by confiscation for non-payment of taxes. The amendment also repeals the 17th amendment making Senators to the United States Congress to be elected by the State Legislatures giving them back representation in Congress, which was removed by the 17th amendment when Senators were elected by the citizens.

2. Congress should rebuild our defenses and call all our troops home to defend America – that is the only legitimate constitutional use for our military.
3. Congress should prohibit the President from turning our military forces over to the United Nations.
4. Congress should get the United States out of the United Nations and the United Nations out of the united states of America.
5. All gun legislation should be immediately repealed and Congress should encourage all citizens to arm themselves with weapons and ammunition for self defense and to prepare to defend our country.
6. A missile defense system needs to be immediately deployed and our borders secured.
7. Protection and support needs to be provided for our inventors that want to give us free energy generators and flying saucer craft.
8. Congress and the President should call a nationwide fast for the deliverance of the Lord.

CITIZENS:

1. Citizens need to get out of debt, but the problem is, if we all paid off all our debts, there would be no money in circulation to have an economy. So in addition to paying off our debts as fast as we possibly can, we, the people need to get busy and get the Asset-Based Monetary System amendment to our Constitution passed by all our State Legislatures and Congress so that we can move as a nation into an asset-based monetary system -- so that all our debts will be paid off and we can have an asset-based monetary system where no inflation or deflation exists and money can be saved over a lifetime and passed on to our children. When we own our own money, then our government will listen to us instead of the International Bankers. You can find a copy of the Asset-Based Monetary System amendment here: <http://www.virtualcityoflight.org/other.html>
2. Citizens need to get a years supply of food, water and fuel and start a garden.
3. Citizens need to arm themselves with weapons and ammunition for self defense and to defend our country.
4. Citizens need to repent of their sins, read their scriptures, attend church and renew their obedience to God's commandments with great diligence so we can be worthy of His many blessings, guidance and protection.
5. As Citizens, we need to fast, and pray for the deliverance of the Lord, and listen to His Holy Prophets.

The time is short. May the dear Lord save us and our country.

Our God will hear our prayers, if we pray with faith, and strive diligently to keep His commandments to show our commitment to Him.

Our God is our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and His Father, Our Father In Heaven, and the Holy Spirit

GENERAL WASHINGTON'S VISION

HE ANTICIPATED THE FUTURE COURSE OF AMERICA

(Originally published by Wesley Bradshaw. Copied from a reprint in the National Tribune, Volume 4, NO. 12, December 1880.)

The last I ever saw Anthony Sherman was on the fourth of July, 1859, in Independence Square. He was then ninety-nine years old, his dimming eyes rekindled as he gazed upon Independence Hall, which he came to visit once more. "I want to tell you an incident of Washington's life--one which no one alive knows except myself; and, if you live, you will before long, see it verified.

WASHINGTON -- A MAN OF PRAYER

He said, "From the opening of the Revolution, we experienced all phases of fortune, good and ill. The darkest period we ever had, I think was when Washington, after several reverses, retreated to Valley Forge, where he resolved to pass the winter of 1777. Ah! I have often seen the tears coursing down our dear commander's careworn cheeks, as he would be conversing with a confidential officer about the condition of his soldiers. You have doubtless heard the story of Washington's going to the thicket to pray. Well, he also used to pray to God in secret for aid and comfort.

"One day, I remember well, the chilly winds whistled through the leafless trees; though the sky was cloudless and the sun shone brightly, he remained in his quarters nearly all the afternoon alone. When he came out I noticed that his face was a shade paler than usual, and there seemed to be something on his mind of more than ordinary importance. Returning just after dusk, he dispatched an orderly to the quarters of the officer I mention who was presently in attendance. After a preliminary conversation of about half an hour, Washington gazing upon his companion with that strange look of dignity which he alone could command, said to the latter:

A VISION OF FUTURE EVENTS

"I do not know whether it is owing to the anxiety of my mind, or what, but this afternoon, preparing a dispatch, something seemed to disturb me. Looking up, I beheld, standing opposite me, a singularly beautiful being. So astonished was I, for I had given strict orders not to be disturbed, that it was some moments before I found language to inquire the cause of the visit. A second, a third, and even a fourth time did I repeat my question, but received no answer from my mysterious visitor, except a slight raising of the eyes. But this time I felt strange sensations spreading through me, and I would have risen, but the riveted gaze of the being before me rendered volition impossible. I assayed once more to speak, but my tongue had become useless, as though I had become paralyzed. A new influence, mysterious, potent, irresistible, took possession. All I could do was to gaze steadily, vacantly at my unknown visitor. Gradually the surrounding atmosphere seemed as though becoming filled with sensations, and grew luminous. Everything about me seemed to rarify, including the mysterious visitor.

"I began to feel as one dying, or rather to experience the sensations which I have sometimes imagined accompany dissolution. I did not think. I did not reason. I did not move; all were alike impossible. I was only conscious of gazing fixedly, vacantly at my companion.

SETTLEMENT AND EXPANSION OF THE U.S.

"Presently, I heard a voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn,' while at the same time my visitor extended an arm eastwardly, I now beheld a heavy vapor at some distance rising fold upon fold. This gradually dissipated and I looked out upon a strange scene. Before me lay spread out in one vast plain all the countries of the world--Europe, Asia, Africa and America. I saw rolling and tossing between Europe and America the billows of the Atlantic, and between Asia and America lay the Pacific.

"'Son of the Republic,' said the same mysterious voice as before, look and learn.' At that moment I beheld a dark shadowy being as an angel standing, or rather floating in mid-air, between Europe and America. Dipping water out of the ocean in the hollow of his hand, he cast some on Europe. Immediately a cloud raised from those countries, and joined in mid-ocean. For awhile it remained stationary, and then moved slowly westward until it enveloped America in its murky folds. Sharp flashes of lightening gleamed through it at intervals, and I heard smothered groans and cries of the American people. A second time the angel dipped water from the ocean and sprinkled it out as before. The dark cloud was then drawn back to the ocean, in whose billows it sank from view.

"A third time I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn,' and I cast my eyes upon America and beheld villages and towns and cities spring up one after another until the whole land from the Atlantic to the Pacific was dotted with them. Again I heard the mysterious voice say, 'Son of the Republic, the end of the century cometh, look and learn.'

THE CIVIL WAR ANTICIPATED

"And this time the dark shadowy angel turned his face southward, and from Africa I saw an ill-omened spectre approach our land. It flitted slowly over every town and city of the latter. The inhabitants presently set themselves in battle against each other. As I continued looking, I saw a bright angel, upon whose brow rested a crown of light, on which was traced the word 'Union,' bearing the American flag which he placed between the divided nation, and said, 'Remember, ye are brethren.' Instantly, the inhabitants, casting down their weapons became friends once more, and united around the National Standard.

AMERICA TO BE INVADED BY FOREIGN FOES

"Again I heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' At this, the dark shadowy angel placed a trumpet to his lips and blew three distinct blasts; and taking water from the ocean, he sprinkled it on Europe, Asia and Africa. Then my eyes beheld a fearful scene; from each of these countries arose thick black clouds that were soon joined into one. And throughout this mass there gleamed a dark red light by which I was seeing hordes of armed men who, moving with the cloud, marched by land and sailed by sea to America, which country was enveloped in the volume of cloud. And I dimly saw these vast armies devastate the whole country and burn villages, towns and cities that I beheld springing up.

"As my ears listened to the thundering of the cannon, slashing of swords, and the shouts and cries of millions in mortal combat, I again heard the mysterious voice saying, 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' When the voice had ceased, the dark angel placed his trumpet once more to his mouth and blew a long and fearful blast.

OUR COUNTRY EMERGES THE VICTOR

Instantly, a light as of a thousand suns shown down from above me, and pierced and broke into fragments the dark cloud which enveloped America. At the same moment, the angel upon whose head still shown the word 'Union' and who bore our national flag in one hand and a sword in the other, descended from the heavens attended by legions of white spirits.

These immediately joined the inhabitants of America, whom I perceived were well nigh overcome, but who, immediately taking courage again, closed up their broken ranks and renewed the battle. Again, amid the fearful noise of the conflict I heard the mysterious voice saying 'Son of the Republic, look and learn.' As the voice ceased, the shadowy angel for the last time dipped water from the ocean and sprinkled it upon America. Instantly, the dark cloud rolled back, together with the armies it had brought, leaving the inhabitants of the land victorious.

A PERIOD OF RECONSTRUCTION

"Then once more, I beheld the villages, towns and cities springing up where I'd seen them before, while the bright angel planted the azure standard he had brought in the midst of them, cried with a loud voice: 'While the stars remain, and the heavens send down dew upon the earth, so long shall the Union last.' And taking from his brow the crown on which blazoned the word 'Union' he placed it upon the standard while the people, kneeling down, said 'Amen.'

DIVINE INTERVENTION

The scene instantly began to fade and dissolve, and I, at least, saw nothing but the rising, curling vapor I at first beheld. This also disappeared, and I found myself once more gazing upon the mysterious visitor, who, in the same voice I had heard before said, 'Son of the Republic, what you have seen is thus interpreted. Three great perils will come upon the Republic. The most fearful is the third (the comment on his 'third' is: 'The help against the THIRD peril comes in the shape of Divine Assistance') passing which the whole world united shall not prevail against her. Let every child of the Republic learn to live for his God, his land and Union.' With these words the vision vanished, and I started from my seat and felt that I had seen a vision wherein had been shown me the birth, the progress and the destiny of the United States."

"Such, my friends," said the venerable narrator, "were the words I heard from Washington's own lips, and America will do well to profit by them."

A HEAVENLY VISITOR

Most of us have read the story of General George Washington's vision. During that terrible winter of 1777 and 1778 God spoke to our great general, who later became our first president, and showed him the entire future of the United States of America. He showed him the victory that would be won at the cost of many lives, the birth of the Union, the Second Great Peril of the Civil War and the final, and Third Great Peril which we are now facing in this generation. He also was permitted to see the growth and development of the greatest nation on the face of the earth, its mighty cities and progress. During the time of the terrible and last Third Great Peril, he saw enemy armies invading this beautiful nation and the citizens giving their lives to defend it, with the final victory being won as the Lord and His Saints came down to help the citizens defend themselves against the enemy. The vision ended with the millennium and the important part America will play during the thousands years of peace on earth.

Closely related to Washington's Vision, but not as well known, is a vision which was given to General George B. McClellan, one of the generals who took part in the Second Peril to hit America (the Civil War).

The only source which is known to have an account of this vision is the Evening Courier or Portland, Maine, for March 8, 1862. It carries a lengthy account of a vision reported to be in McClellan's own words. The General was alive at the time and could have repudiated the account and demanded an immediate retraction if it had been false.

General McClellan is not as well known as other military leaders in America. But he did serve his country well and was responsible for preserving our Union and was undoubtedly divinely assisted in this undertaking.

General McClellan had gone to Washington, D.C., to take over the command of the United States Army. This being the third day of his arrival, he was working until two o'clock in the night checking the reports of scouts and studying his maps. Being overcome with exhaustion and work, he leaned his head on his arms on the table and fell asleep.

About ten minutes later, the locked door was opened suddenly and someone entered and walked right up to him, and a voice of authority said, "General McClellan, do you sleep at your post? Rouse you, or ere it can be prevented, the foe will be in Washington!"

The General then gave some details of this strange experience which followed. He told how he felt himself suspended in infinite space. Above him he heard a voice which startled him. He could not tell whether he was awake or asleep. The walls of the room, with its furniture and other objects, were no longer visible; but the maps covering the table were still before him. Then he found himself gazing upon a "living map" of America which extended from the Mississippi River to the Atlantic Ocean. The General was unable to identify the being standing before him, except that it had the appearance of a man.

Then he looked at the mysterious map before him and was amazed to see the movements of the various troops; and as he watched, he realized he was seeing the complete picture of the enemy's lines and distribution of their forces. Being greatly elated, he felt he now knew what strategy to use to end the war speedily and victoriously.

But then his elation gave way to great apprehension because, on this moving map, he saw the enemy's soldiers moving to the very position he had intended to occupy in a few days. He then knew that the enemy was aware of his plan of attack.

Then the voice spoke again, "General McClellan, you have been betrayed. And had God not willed otherwise, ere the sun of tomorrow had set, the Confederate flag would have flown over the Capitol and your own grave. But note what you see. Your time is short!"

Noting the movement of the troops on the "living map," he took his pencil and transferred their position to the paper map on his desk. Then McClellan was aware of the figure near him becoming luminous with light and glory. Raising his view, he looked into the face of George Washington!

Sublime and dignified, our first President looked upon the bewildered General and spoke the following, "General McClellan, while yet in the flesh I beheld the birth of the American Republic. It was indeed a hard and bloody one, but God's blessing was upon the nation and, therefore, through this, her first great struggle for existence, He sustained her and brought her out triumphantly with His mighty hand. A century has not passed since then, and yet the child Republic has taken her position as peer with nations whose pages of history extend for ages into the past. She has since those dark days, by the favour of God, greatly prospered. But now, by very reason of this prosperity, she has been brought to her second great struggle. This is by far the most perilous ordeal she has had to endure, passing as she is from childhood to open maturity. She is now being called upon to accomplish that vast result, self-conquest: to learn that important lesson of self-control, self-rule, which in the future will place her in the van of power and civilization.

"But her vision will not then be finished; for ERE ANOTHER CENTURY shall have gone by, the oppressors of the whole earth, hating and envying her exaltation, shall join themselves together and raise up their hands against her. But if she still be found worthy of her high calling, they shall surely be discomfitted, and then shall be ended her THIRD and last great struggle for existence. Thenceforth shall the Republic go on, increasing in power and goodness until her borders shall end only in the remotest corners of the earth, and the whole earth be blessed by her. Let her in her prosperity, however, remember the Lord her God, and let her trust be always in Him and she shall never be confounded."

After this, the heavenly visitor, who appeared to be Washington, raised his hand over General McClellan's head in blessing. A peal of thunder which rumbled through space awakened McClellan with a start, and he found himself in his room with his maps spread out before him on the table as they had been before he had dozed off.

As he looked upon the maps, he noticed a difference, for they were covered with marks, signs, and figures which he had made during the time he thought he had been sleeping. He stood up and started walking around the room to prove to himself that he was really awake and that he was seeing "straight." Then taking another look at the maps, he found the markings still there.

Realizing this experience was divinely given, he ordered his horse saddled and went from camp to camp, ordering changes to be made which were necessary to frustrate the enemy's planned offensive. The strategy was successful and prevented the city of Washington from being captured. The Confederate Army, at that time, was so close to the capitol that Abraham Lincoln, sitting in the White House, could hear the roar of the Confederate artillery.

Thus the Union was saved, and in the recorded story General McClellan concludes his account of his vision with these words. "The future is too vast for our comprehension; we are the Children of the present. When peace shall again have folded her bright wings and settled upon our land, the strange, unearthly map which was marked that night by a supernatural hand shall be preserved among American archives, as a precious reminder to the American nation what they owe to God for His intervention in the Second Great Struggle for existence. Verily, the works of God are above the understanding of man!"

(Note: Thoughts of A. J. Lowery follow)

I have no difficulty in accepting the validity of this dramatic account. I know that even as Moses and Elijah appeared in a glorified state to Peter, James and John as they were with Jesus in the Mount of Transfiguration, God is able, in the same way to speak to those whom He has placed in important places of leadership and given them direct guidance concerning their appointed task. Remember that these two Old Testament saints, Moses and Elijah, spoke with Jesus about His coming death, thus preparing Him to go through it (Luke 9:31). The Apostle Paul also had a vision of "a man of Macedonia" calling for him to come and help them (Acts 16:9-12). And John received the revelation of the Book of Revelation through a heavenly messenger who told John that he was a prophet in glorified form (Revelation 22:9) Why are we so ready to attribute the miraculous visitations of God to a satanic source? There is only a veil between the seen and unseen world. Paul tells us that we are "compassed about with a great cloud of witnesses: (Hebrews 12:1). Many translations render it, "we are surrounded by a company of witnesses." Praise God! America is not alone in this great peril. All the nations of the world may turn their backs upon us. They may leave our soldier boys to die on the battle fields alone, they may betray us in the midst of the battle; but if we, ourselves, will remain a holy nation, fulfilling the destiny which God has planned for us, then God will fight our battles and we will see the Glory of the Lord as He cometh with ten thousand saints to execute judgment upon all (Jude 1:14).

PATRICK HENRY'S PARTING ADDRESS

Rarely has a famous man shown more indifference to the preservation of the records and credentials of his career than did Patrick Henry. However, there was a single exception.

Alongside his will was found a sealed document bearing this superscription: "Enclosed are the resolutions of the Virginia Assembly in 1765, concerning the Stamp Act. Let my executors open this paper." On one side of the sheet were written the first five of his famous resolutions and on the other side these memorable words which were his parting address to his countrymen:

"The within resolutions passed the House of Burgesses in May, 1765. They formed the first opposition to the Stamp Act, and the scheme of taxing America by the British parliament. All the colonies, either through fear, or want of opportunity to form an opposition, or from influence of some kind or other, had remained silent. I had been for the first time elected a Burgess a few days before; was young, inexperienced, unacquainted with the forms of the House, and the members that composed it. Finding the men of weight averse to opposition, and the Commencement of the tax at hand, and that no person was likely to step forth, I determined to venture; and alone, unadvised, and unassisted, on a blank leaf of an old law book, wrote the within. Upon offering them to the House, violent debates ensued. Many threats were uttered, and much abuse cast on me by the party for submission. After a long and warm contest, the resolutions passed by a very small majority, perhaps of one or two only. The alarm spread throughout America with astonishing quickness, and the ministerial party were overwhelmed. The great point of resistance to British taxation was universally established in the colonies. This brought on the war, which finally separated the two countries, and gave independence to ours.

Whether this will prove a blessing or a curse, will depend upon the sue our people make of the blessings which a gracious God hath bestowed on us. If they are wise, they will be great and happy. If they are of a contrary character, they will be miserable. Righteousness alone can exalt them as a nation.

Reader! Whoever thou art, remember this; and in thy sphere practice virtue thyself, and encourage it in others."

..... Patrick Henry

In Patrick Henry, America had a faithful servant who did indeed "bow to the majesty of the people."

THE UNKNOWN WHO SWAYED THE SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Faced with the death penalty for high treason, courageous men debated long before they picked up the quill pen to sign the parchment that declared the independence of the colonies from the mother country on July 4, 1776. For many hours they had debated in the State House of Philadelphia, with the lower chamber doors locked and a guard posted.

According to Jefferson, it was late in the afternoon before the delegates gathered their courage to the sticking point. The talk was about axes, scaffolds, and the gibbet, when suddenly a strong, bold voice seconded -- "Gibbet! They may stretch our necks on all the gibbets in the land; every home into a grave, and yet the words of that parchment can never die! They may pour our blood in a thousand scaffolds, and yet from every drop that dyes the axe a new champion of freedom will spring into birth! The British King may blot out the stars of God from the sky, but he cannot blot out His words written on that parchment there. The works of God may perish; His words never!

"The words of this declaration will live in the world long after our bones are dust. To the mechanic in his workshop they will speak hope; to the slave in the mines freedom; but to the coward kings, these words will speak in tones of warning they cannot choose but hear.

"Sign the parchment! Sign, if the next moment the gibbet's rope is about your neck! Sign, if the next minute this hall rings with the clash of falling axes! Sign, by all your hopes in life or death, as men, as husbands, as fathers, brothers, sign your names to the parchment, or be accursed forever! Sign, and not only for yourselves, but for all ages, for that parchment will be the textbook of freedom, the bible of the rights of man forever.

"Nay, do not start and whisper with surprise! It is truth, your own hearts witness it; God proclaims it. Look at this strange band of exiles and outcasts, suddenly transformed into a people; a handful of men, weak in arms, but mighty in God-like faith; nay, look at your recent achievements, your Bunker Hill, your Lexington, and then tell me, if you can, that God has not given America to be free;

"It is not given to our poor human intellect to climb to the skies, and to pierce the Council of the Almighty One. But methinks I stand among the awful clouds which veil the brightness of Jehovah's throne.

"Methinks I see the recording Angel come trembling up to the throne and speak his dread message, 'Father, the old world is baptized in blood. Father, look with one glance of Thine eternal eye, and behold evermore that terrible sight, man trodden beneath the oppressor's feet, nations lost in blood, murder, and superstition, walking hand in hand over the graves of the victims, and not a single voice of hope to man!

"He stands there, the Angel, trembling with the record of human guilt. But hark! The voice of God speaks from out of the awful cloud: 'Let there be light again! Tell my people, the poor and oppressed, to go out from the old world, from oppression and blood, and build My altar in the new.

"As I live, my friends, I believe that to be His voice! Yes, were my soul trembling on the verge of eternity, were this hand freezing in death, were this voice choking in the last struggle, I would still, with the last impulse of that soul, with the last wave of that hand, with the last gasp of that voice, implore you to remember this truth--God has given America to be free!

"Yes, as I sank into the gloomy shadows of the grave, with my last faint whisper I would beg you to sign that parchment for the sake of those millions whose very breath is now hushed in intense expectation as they look up to you for the awful words: 'You are free.'"

The unknown speaker fell exhausted into his seat. The delegates, carried away by his enthusiasm, rushed forward. John Hancock scarcely had time to pen his bold signature before the quill was grasped by another. It was done.

The delegates turned to express their gratitude to the unknown speaker for his eloquent words. He was not there.

Who was this strange man, who seemed to speak with a divine authority, whose solemn words gave courage to the doubters and sealed the destiny of the new nation?

His name is not recorded; none of those present knew him; or if they did, not one acknowledged the acquaintance.

How he had entered into the locked and guarded room is not told, nor is there any record of the manner of his departure.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!
